The United States Demurs.

In the German-American Bank cases the United States, by its special autorney, R. Ross Perry, has demurred to the substituted plea of the defendant fount filtz, and claims that it is had, inamuon as it contains averments to three separate matters of facet, via, that the safe defendant is an along that he was consul-general of the Swiss confederation at the time of the foundation of the alleged offenes and of the finding of the said dimes, and that he was the political agent of the said confederation at the said dimes; to each of which matters the United States is emitted to reply separately. published in regard to the case, and THE REPUBLICAN will now give the true facts attendant on his death. Some time ago a Dr. Beard came here from Texas and was, so it is said, an applicant for a marshalship in the Lone Ster State. He took a room at 229 D street northwest, and became very intimate with a Mr. Dickson, who also rooms there, and later with Jacob Hess. On the evening when Hess died he was in Dickson's room apparently well, but after a short time complained of nausea and pains in his stomach. Dr. Joseph A. Tarkington, of 217 D street northwest, was called in and heard a diagnosis of the case from Dr. Beard; administered some slight remedies, and left the case to Dr. Beard. The latter administered a hypodermic injection, but what other treatment he followed is not known. The next Dr. Turkington heard of the case was that the patient was dead, and on Dr. Beard's representations he gave a certificate of death resulting from aportency. Dr. Tarkington seems to have acted in perfect good faith, and, of course, accepted his professionial brothers report without question. These are the facts as brought to light by Detective Coomes. He also a systiant he has learned that after Hess's d-ath Beard and Dickson went to the former's room and went through his effects before notifying mybody of his death. Beard has since let the city, and, it is alleged, has gone to Texas. Taken all in all, the circumstances certainly demand a searching investigation by the proper anthorities. The coroner takes no action in the matter because he has not been officially notified, and the police say they can do nothing, as the matter comes under the proper cognizance of that official.

SERGEANT MASON.

His Counsel to Lay a Hersew of the Case Before the President. Mr. J. G. Bigelow, sex Sergeaut John A. Meson's counsel, will to-day lay before the President a review of the case of his client, and his reason for believing that the sentence imposed by the court-martial is void. The main points of his argument are that the cour:-martial erred in trying the prisare that the court-martial erred in trying the prisoner for a violation of the sixty second article of war; that United States troops were guarding the District jall without lawful authority, and that the Secretary of War had no lawful authority to order the troops there; that from the position in which Mason stood when he fired the shot, and Guiteau's position when in his cell, it was a physical impossibility for Guiteau to have been in any dauger from said shot, and furthermore, that the corpus delicti of the charge was established in no way, except by the confession of Mason, made at the time of the shooting, viz: that he had fired at him, and hoped he had killed him, and for other technical errors. He clies a lario number of authorities on the points he raises. He refers to the recent habeas corpus proceedings before the Supreme Court, and while he ack new leadings they somewhat embarrass the c se, he yet claims they do not interfere in the Preident's legal prerogative in the case.

District Matters in Congress, Mr. McDill, of the Senate District Committee, will to-day or Monday report the free bridge bill to the Senate. The committee will recommend an appropriation of $100,000, and the taking posses sion of the Aqueduct bridge at Georgetown with a view of using the pillars. The Senate, on motion of Mr. Harris, yesterday. The Senate, on motion of Mr. Harris, yesterday, non-concurred in the House amendments to the water-supply bill, and the matter will now go to a conference committee. Mr. Harris is hopeful that the liewitt amendment will finally be stricken from the bill. He says the amendment is so manifestly improper and unjust that he believes it will be abandoned; that it is a departure from the plan under which the works were constructed. He says that to compel the District to pay in part for making the improvement will give it the right of ownership to that extent in the property, and that this might lead to complications.

LINEN COLLARS

Do not consider this idle talk. Every lady in Washington knows the magnitude of our stock, which, we can safely state, is three times as large as the stock of any other merchant in this city. Therefore, prepare for bargains, as by the time we move into our NEW HOUSE we expect to reduce the stock to the smallest in the city. The goods are all fresh, having sent all our old trials to New York auction to be sold to the highest bidder. Call early in the morning to avoid the immenso rush.
